PREFACE.

The index to contents on pages 20 and 21 of this, the seventh volume of the Naumkeag Directory, indicates the great variety of information furnished in the book, and an examination of the twelve hundred pages which follow will give the careful observer some indication of the vast amount of labor and detail necessary to its completion.

The liberal and ever increasing patronage accorded this publication, is a source of gratification to the publisher, and an evidence that his endeavor to make the Naumkeag the best directory published in Massachusetts, and thereby in some measure advance the business interests of this community, is fully appreciated. A glance at the advertising pages must convince any one that the business concerns represented therein are satisfied that the Naumkeag is a most valuable advertising medium. No business place is complete without it, and every family desirous of having a book of ready reference to matters of historic and local interest, should purchase a copy. The advertisements on pages 493-524 indicate the enterprise of those connected with the leather industry.

This edition contains much new material and many changes. The buildings on about one-third of the streets in Salem have been re-numbered since the last edition, entailing a vast amount of extra care and labor in the canvass and compilation. A diagram of the seats in the new Peabody Institute in Danvers; also, diagrams of the new Keith's and Castle Square theatres, and the remodelled Museum, in Boston; also, of the Lynn theatre, have been added to the other diagrams of halls and theatres. A new feature, and one never published in any other directory, is the lists of business changes that have taken place since the publication of the last book, and which can be readily found by referring to the index to contents.

In the Beverly department there is a new street and householders' directory, adding greatly to the value of the book. This department also contains a description of the new ward lines, and the same are also located on the map, with many streets of recent construction in Beverly.

A brief description of each city and town in Essex county, giving date of incorporation, can be found on page 652-G. The illustrations appear in different parts of the book and contain several views reproduced from old publications.

The great variety of useful and interesting matter contained herein, renders the book invaluable for reference, and when compared with similar works of the same price, will be found to surpass all in completeness and detail.

HENRY M. MEEK, Publisher.

FOR SALE TO COLLECTORS BY

REGULATIONS FOR HACKNEY CARRIAGES IN THE CITY OF SALEM

Adopted January 31, 1881, by Board of Aldermen.

ORDERED. That, until otherwise ordered, the price or rates of fare, to be taken by, or paid to, the owner, driver, or other person having charge of any licensed hackney carriage, except omnibuses and barges, shall be as follows:

SECTION 1. For the conveyance, from one place to another within the limits of that part of the city, lying and being within the following described boundaries, viz.: Commencing at the junction of Essex and Webb streets, thence running southerly through Webb street to Salem Harbor, thence westerly by said harbor to Union street bridge, thence easterly and southerly by said harbor to Ocean Avenue, thence by Ocean Avenue to the track of the Eastern Railroad Co., thence northerly by said track to Margin street, thence southerly and westerly by Margin street and the Mill Pond to the southern end of Hathorne street; thence westerly by the eastern line of the Great Pastures to Highland Avenue, thence, by Essex, Boston, Grove, Mason, Barr, School and Orne streets to Walter street; thence through Walter street to the eastern end thereof, and continuing on the same course to North river, thence westerly by said river to the bridge on North street; thence easterly by the southern line of North River to the northern end of March street; thence by March, Bridge and Osgood streets to Collins Cove; thence westerly by Collins Cove to Webb street; thence southerly through Webb street to the point begun at; of one or more adult passengers, twenty-five cents each.

SECT. 2. For one or more adult passengers from any place in the city within said limits to any place in the city beyond said limits, but within Block-house square, the junction of Lafayette street and Lynn Road, the Glue Works on Highland Avenue, Prospect, Varney, Rawlins, Watson, Grove, Mason, Myrtle, School and Northend streets, Liberty, Hill Road, Appleton and Orne streets, and Beverly Bridge, or vice versa; thirty-five cents each.

SECT. 3. For one or more adult passengers from one extreme to another extreme, of the limits described in the second section, fifty cents each.

SECT. 4. From Washington street to the depots, or any place in the city east of Washington street, and between North and South Rivers to the Willows, Juniper or Winter Island, or vice versa, for one adult passenger, seventy-five cents; or two adult passengers, fifty cents each; for three or more adult passengers, thirty-five cents each.

From any place in the city beyond the limits hereinbefore stated in this section, but within Ocean Avenue, Boston, Grove, Mason, School and Orne streets, to the Willows, Juniper or Winter Island, or vice versa, for one adult passenger, one dollar; for two or more adult passengers, fifty cents each.

SECT. 5. From any place within the limits mentioned in Section One, to Harmony Grove, for one adult passenger, seventy-five cents; for two adult passengers, fifty cents each; for three or more adult passengers, thirty five cents each. For returning therefrom with same passengers and without delay, fifty cents; whether for one or more passengers.

SECT. 6. For the conveyance of persons to any place not hereinbefore specified, and for funerals, special reasonable rates may be charged.

SECT. 7. The charge for hackney carriages drawn by two horses, when hired by the hour, shall be one dollar and one-half a dollar for each hour, and when drawn by one horse, one dollar for each hour; and for parts of hours after the first hour, a proportional part of the rate for one hour shall be charged.

SECT. 8. For children under six years of age, with an adult, no charge will be made. For children between six and twelve years of age when accompanied by an adult, the fare shall be half the price charged for an adult, and when not accompanied by an adult, full fare may be charged.

SECT. 9. Between the hours of ten o'clock at night and half past six o'clock in the morning, double the above established rates may be charged.

SECT. 10. No charge shall be made for one trunk, and the valise, carpet-bags, portmanteaus, bundles and baskets, of each passenger, but for each additional trunk, more than one, fifteen cents may be charged; and the owner or driver of any hackney carriage, shall not be required to take or deposit the baggage of any passenger, except from or in the hall or vestibule, of any residence or building in the city.

SECT. 11. When any street is mentioned in this order as the boundary of any limit, both sides of the street shall be deemed to be, and is included, within such limit.

SALEM NICKNAMES. From the Salem News.

Salem is unusually prolific in local nomenclature. There is hardly a lane or alley, hill or hollow, which has not borne some nickname more or less appropriate at some period of its history. In this age of directories such names become lost, giving place to the recognized title.

All down town, below Pleasant street, was formerly known as Wapping, so named from Wapping in London.

North Salem was christened Pigeonville, and many still call it North Fields, a later title.

Castletonville now nicknamed Nauvoo, was a locality where Winthrop and Endicott streets now are. A man named Joe Smith built a house there about the same time that Joe Smith the Mormon settled Nauvoo.

Roast meat hill applied to the rising ground back of High street.

Knocker's hole was in the vicinity of Mill and Margin streets. There was a shipyard there in the last century.

Button hole was near the jail, and the Button hole toughs used to have fights with the Knockers' hole gang.

Vinegar hill was on Broad street.

Circus lane is now Hathorne street, the fields out that way being let years ago for circus performances.

Liberty hill is in North Salem, off Appleton street. There was a little picnic ground there years ago, and quite a story could be written of its history.

Buffum's corner was at the junction of Boston and Essex streets named after a Buffum who kept store there about 150 years ago.

Neck gate denoted the end of Derby street.

Blubber hollow was from Federal to Goodhue street; also known as Town bridge.

Johnny Cake hill stood between Blubber hollow and the big tree on Boston street.

Carletonville is a section of North Salem on Mason street.

From the big tree to the Peabody burying ground was called Trask's plain.

The Nubble was a locality near the Peabody burying ground.

Goose lane ran from Federal to Fowler street.

Lovers' lane was off Tremont street.

Plank alley was a part of Elm street between Charter and Essex.

Baptist hill, in the rear of Federal street, named from the First Baptist church, now called Odell square. They used to baptize in a pond near by.

Gallows hill, in the rear of Boston street, the scene of the witchcraft executions of 1692 is too well known to require anything beyond mere mention. As also the town pastures and Castle hill, which still hold their names.

Creek street is so named because it is built over what was a creek, but is now culverted over.

School house lane was the early name given Washington street, afterwards Court street.

"Nahum Keike," or Naumkeag, was the original Indian name for North river.

Federal street was so named in 1766, as an indication of the united feeling in favor of something better than an eight-foot way along the North River. The portion from Washington to North was previously called Marlborough street, and the eastern portion County street.

Old Paved street was the name of Essex between Washington and North for many years, it being paved about 1773. King street and Main street are also names which have been applied to Essex street.

MARBLEHEAD BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

MARBLEHEAD settled about 1629, incorporated May 2, 1649. Population as per census of 1890 is 3202. Distance from Boston, 18 miles, with which it is connected by the B. & M. R. R., Swampscott Branch, 7 to 11 trains daily, and to Salem, M'head Branch, 4 miles, 11 trains daily. Also connected with Lynn, Swampscott, Salem and all contiguous towns by street railway half hourly. Has one of the finest harbors on the coast, and is the yachting centre of New England. Is celebrated for the manufacture of children's shoes. On account of the ease with which markets and trade centres can be reached, skilled labor procured and the delightful climate tempered by the sea-breezes in summer and ocean currents in winter, there are few places offering stronger inducements or better facilities for carrying on a manufacturing business than Marblehead.

PEABODY BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

PEABODY is a large and prosperous town situated two miles from Salem and eighteen miles from Boston, and is intimately related to Salem in all its social and industrial interests. It is connected with Salem, Boston, Lynn and other centres by different branches of the Boston & Maine railroad. It is also connected with surrounding places by several lines of street railways. It has many and varied industries, the most important being the tanning, currying and finishing of hides and sheep skins, glue making, cloth bleaching, machine shops, thermometer manufactory, etc. The Peabody Institute affords admirable literary advantages, having two libraries, the reference library being of extensive scope and a course of free lectures is given every winter. These facilities with the excellent schools of the town render the educational advantages of peculiar value. It has an ample water supply (high service) from the beautiful Spring Pond, and an electric light plant established by the town. It has a population of ten thousand, its people are full of enterprise and spirit, and its facilities for extensive manufacturing are unsurpassed.
